Ahoy me Hearties, Capt Greybeard and QM Anne Bonney be searching for crew again this year at the Kingston Overlook, Chick-fil-A on Tuesday, 5 March 2013, 17:30 to 19:30. Ye be warned some of our hands went to Davy Jones Locker in our last raid on the GREAT ALLEN (CalhounS Patio, see <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Etf6oHfvkvo> ). We be reduced to hard tack and bone soup cause the British Navy be searching hard for our fair vessel the QUEENS REVENGE. Chick-fil-A pub be feeding our crew well on Tuesday and none of the Queens pressgangs about and no chance of having to dance the hempen jig.

Crew be hard to secure now so against the pirate code “no prey, no pay” we be offering doubloons from our booty to all our young pirate scallywag friends willing to make their X mark and “Go on Account” (Join our scurvy crew and share our grog, see <http://navcal.com/navcal/ETPGMembers.htm>). Aye matey, the work be hard but the booty be plentiful and the chance to die be no better than serving in the retched Queens Navy.

We be having one of our cannon on our wagon to display we be ready to come about and return to the Tennessee River for more pillaging and plundering this spring. Quartermaster/Surgeon Anny Bonney still be offering free amputations to poor unfortunates if ye can avast the grog long enough; Arrr!

We be told a real Princess will grace the Chick-fil-A pub for our visit so bring your cameras and your crew and please come in costume for the contests.

Captain Greybeard & Quartermaster Anny Bonney
